

Enjoy 山の日 in the Mountains!

Summer has come to Tokachi in full force, with most days reaching highs over 30 degrees! As the white peaks surrounding Tokachi melt away, many find themselves spending more and more time outside. In this month's Obihiro Pioneer, let's learn about Japan's newest holiday and how we can celebrate it here in Tokachi.

The first 山の日 yama no hi, or "Mountain Day," took place just last year in 2016. With Japan being an island country formed by volcanoes, Mountain day is a fitting holiday. But why August 11th? Frankly there is no real significance to the actual date. After being proposed to by the Japanese Alpine Club in 2014, legislators decided on adding a holiday in August to extend the Obon vacation. Why August? In Japanese kanji, August looks like a mountain! 八月 (Hachi gatsu)

Climbing the mountains here in Tokachi is daunting, but we can enjoy the views better from afar! Here are a couple of places to take in the beauty of the mountains:

Snow Peak Tokachi Poroshiri
スノーピーク十勝ポロシリキャンプ
フィールド

Address: Obihiro Takusei-Cho Dai
2 Kisen 2-7

Located on the outskirts of Obihiro, Snow Peak Tokachi Poroshiri's campgrounds provide a perfect view of the Tokachi mountain range. The grounds can be used by both regular campers and auto-campers. If you're not quite ready to spend the night outdoors, explore the Snow Peak's high-end camping goods store!

Obihiro City Hall Observatory Deck 帯広市役所展望ホール

Address: Obihiro Nishi 5, South 7-1
If you live in Obihiro, you're sure to have gone to city hall to get paperwork done. Obihiro City Hall happens to be one of the tallest buildings in the area. Head upstairs to the 11th floor to grab lunch or coffee and enjoy the panoramic view of the mountains!

Enjoy the long weekend and mountains!
