

Welcome Jun!

This August, we welcomed the newest member of the Obihiro CIR family, Junjie Tan from Singapore! While less than a month of Hokkaido life under his belt, Obihiro Pioneer had the opportunity to sit down and get to know the new CIR.

OP: Introduce yourself!

I am Tan Jun Jie, my friends usually call me Jun or J.J.

I grew up in Singapore, a metropolitan city that is famous for the Merlion, Marina Bay Sands and its amazing (cheap!) access to other Southeast Asian countries.

I enjoy listening to music and traveling. On top of that, I really love food! I occasionally try to make a good meal but let's just say it doesn't always end up well.

A perfect day for me is one where I get to explore and get lost in places, enjoy a delicious meal after getting out and listening to my favourite songs at the end of the day.

I graduated from the Singapore University of Technology and Design last September, with a B.E. in Computer Engineering, worked part-time as a freelancer and did an internship before coming to Obihiro.

OP: Sounds like you had a busy life in Singapore. Why did you decide to come to Japan for work?

I hold a long-standing interest in Japan ever since my friends in secondary school introduced me to Japanese pop music. This interest led me to explore other aspects of the Japanese culture. One exchange trip and a WWOOF experience later, I was swayed to choose Japan as my first destination for work.

Welcome Jun! Part 2

Nearing university graduation, I caught wind of information about the JET Programme and thought it aligned with my goals to learn more about Japan. I seized that opportunity and fortunately got selected to be here in Japan.

OP: We're happy to have you with us! Is this your first time to Hokkaido?

This is my second time in Hokkaido, but the first in Obihiro! I explored Hakodate, Sapporo and Biei this May, and was really excited to come back!

OP: What are some things you would like to do while living in Hokkaido?

Nature, food, music, people! Hokkaido is famous for its natural scenery and food, and while I do not drive, I am still very keen to do a road trip around Hokkaido. I would love to explore Hokkaido to my fullest, try local delicacies as well as make new friends along the way. I also enjoy listening to music and try to actively seek out live houses and cool places to hang out at.

I almost forgot! Sports! I am admittedly not a huge fan of sports, but I do want to give winter sports a try while I am here!

OP: No doubt you'll have a long winter to try winter sports! Lastly, as the a CIR of Obihiro, what are you hoping to achieve while you're here?

I have many goals! But let me share a few that I am working on.

My first goal is to deepen my conversational skills in Japanese in order to add meaning to the conversations with people I meet in and out of work. Another would be to improve my time management skills, since this is my first job out of university and I am still relatively new to the working scene. But most importantly, I want to make the best of my time here in Obihiro and facilitate friendly relationships between Obihiro and Singapore.

Thanks JJ for your wonderful interview! If you like to meet JJ in person, be sure to attend his International Talk on 9/30! Details on page 2.
